Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Marian Judd Green was born on March 1, 1907, to Ray and Hattie Judd at Murdo, South Dakota, the second of five daughters; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Marian married Durward Green and to this union two children were born, Linda and Thomas; and,

Whereas, Marian was a country school teacher and also a sorority house mother at The University of South Dakota and is known as a kind-hearted and loving woman; and,

Whereas, Marian, known as Grandma Green, resides at Watertown, South Dakota, and will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather on March 2, 2007, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 1, 2007, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
